Words from Bro. Scott:

The next three sermons will discuss the topics of life and death. How do you know if something is alive? How do you know if something is dead? Who makes the final determination if something is alive or dead? In the situation with our plant, Lazarus, I have been watching every week for signs of life. I observed that some of the branches had withered and buds fallen off, so being the plants owner, I cut off those branches. I also have recently observed buds on other branches starting to open and maybe produce leaves, and right now I think they are alive. God observes our lives and knows if we are alive or dead by His supernatural observations.

However, God can do what you and I cannot. He can make something that is dead come alive. He did that with Jesus. He will do that with us.

JOY Ministry ~Tommy Smith~ Senior Adult Minister

Almost everyone has heard the saying "caught between a rock and a hard place." This phrase means having a dilemma, a situation offering at least two possibilities, neither of which is acceptable. In other words, it describes people who find themselves in the difficult situation of having to make a choice between two unsatisfactory options. Either way, they come out on the losing end.

I believe that description only applies if you're looking at things from a negative, worldly standpoint. The problem with that is, if you look at things the way the world views them, then you can expect to get the same results as the world. But when you look at your situation in light of God's Word..when you apply faith to the situation..you can approach it with the expectation that it's only temporary and that you won't be there long. Eventually, everything is going to be all right.

"For I know the thought that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end." Jeremiah 29:11

God has my life, and yours, all planned out. Because He has a plan, we can have hope.

Our next JOY meeting will be March 16 at 10:30 a.m. in the FFBC Fellowship Hall We will have Subway sandwiches, chips, cookies and drinks and play Bible Trivia.
