Words from Bro. Scott:

As we are nearing the last two sermons on prayer, may we ask ourselves these questions.

(1) Has my prayer life grown? Why or why not? The old proverb is true from your pastor's perspective, 'you can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink.' You are responsible for growth in your prayer life. Please know that I want you to drink everyday from the refreshment of a wonderful prayer time with God.

(2) What has God taught me in prayer? Whether it is practicing daily prayer or studying the Bible, God will help you learn more about Him and yourself when you pray.

(3) Who is depending on me to pray? Each of us has been placed by God in a family, church, and community who needs our prayer support. God is counting on his children to pray for the people He puts in their life.

Thank you from growing, learning, and praying during this time!

Tommy Smith

Senior Adult Minister

“Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised.”

Hebrews 10:23

God was, is and always will be faithful in keeping His promises. The Bible records God's promises of Jesus over 2,000 times! He shares with us details of His lineage, His character but most importantly how and where each promise would be fulfilled and kept

God is love and His greatest act of love was in keeping His promise of sending us a Savior, Jesus. Jesus' crucifixion restored our relationship with God and it is that act that gives us hope for the future. Through Jesus, we have been given the strength and courage we need to overcome fear and face every new day. You are truly loved, seen and know by the promise-keeping God.

Our next JOY meeting will be Tuesday July 14th, 2020 10:30a.m. in the FFBC Fellowship Hall
